Balloon-ing around – Free drop in Age 5+ 31st March – 9th April

From folding bicycles to electric cars, Londoners have been whizzing around the city in ever more creative ways. Put yourself into the shoes of an inventor and design a cool gadget to keep Londoners on the move in the future. What kind of futuristic transport would you invent? Learn how to make your inventions move using balloons and elastic bands. This is a drop-in workshop, so stop by anytime between 12.30-2pm, 2.30-4pm

Storytelling Take a journey to the future. Free drop in for age 5+ 31st March – 6th April

One night a young girl dreams of a future where the London she knows has been badly damaged. Follow the little girl as she travels on her bed through a London ravished by pollution. Will her dream change how she feels about protecting the future of London? This story is an adaptation of Chris van Allsberg's Just A Dream. This is a promenade performance through the galleries and will last about 30 minutes.

Plenty of fish. Free drop-in Age 5+ Plenty of fish. 2nd – 10th April

Consider a future London where everything is underwater. Build models, make collages or draw pictures to show what London might be like in this watery future. How will future Londoners adapt? This is a drop-in workshop so stop by anytime between 12.30-2pm or 2.30-4pm.

Be quick Nelly Free drop in age 5+ 3 – 11 April

Nelly Norris is the inventor of the moveable phone and other fantastic objects but she's not very happy. She has spent years inventing things a week too late! Hear how Nelly has been losing out to things with the worst names and see if you can help her come up with a new idea? She's determined to get in there first this time! Each performance is 30 minutes long.
